The Breath of God

The Breath of God

Job 33:4

The Spirit of God has made me; the breath of the Almighty gives me life. {NIV}

[Gen. 2:7, Ezek. 37:1–10, John 20:21–22]

Breath is something we take for granted. We breathe about 20,000 times a day without a second thought. A person can survive weeks without food and days without water, but take away breath, and life vanishes in minutes.

The divine breath of God is the ultimate force of creation, restoration, and empowerment. When God breathes upon a person or a situation, stagnation dies, dry bones rise, and ordinary dust is transformed into eternal value. Without His breath, humanity is merely ordinary clay; but with it, we become living souls carrying heavenly authority.

In the realm of the spirit, the ruach (Hebrew) or pneuma (Greek)—which translates to wind, breath, or Spirit—is the very life-force of God. Today, we are looking at what happens when the Almighty deliberately blows His breath into a life, a destiny, or a dying situation.

In Genesis 2:7, Before the breath of God came, Adam was just a perfect clay sculpture. He had eyes but couldn't see, ears but couldn't hear, and feet but couldn't walk. He lacked value, movement, and purpose.

Also, in Eze 37:10, Dead and dry bones became living and the bible said an exceeding great army was formed. So, the breath of God is a specialist in turning ordinary dust instantly gained eternal value.

Your family, your relationship, your business, your work, your ministry, no matter how dead can be revived by the breath of God. (Job 33:4)

We also earlier stated that the Breath of God is also the spirit of God, The Holy Spirit. The holy spirit moves in unimaginable ways. We saw how he moved in Gen 1 upon the face of the earth until creation was done.

One major assignment of the Holy spirit is to give us understanding in all things as stated in John 16:13 and John 14:26.

In Job 32:8 the bible said the breath of the almighty gives him understanding

As Tacsfonites We need to crave for understanding to succeed in life and make impact for the kingdom. One of our greatest prayer points should be the prayer of spiritual understanding for all leadership tiers and for our individual lives

The bible said in Proverbs 24:3, that a house (family, business, career, home, finance, education e.t.c.) can only stand when there is understanding
